

Cascade Continues Support of Under Armour All-America Lacrosse Games

Baltimore, Md. (September 25, 2017)— Corrigan Sports Enterprises (CSE), in conjunction with Under Armour, announced today Cascade will continue to serve as the official helmet of the Under Armour All-America Lacrosse games and Underclass Tournament through the year 2020. Cascade has served in this role for the sport's most elite All-Star game since 2009.

“Cascade is proud and honored to be trusted as the helmet worn for the All-America event,” said Tim Ellsworth, Global Business Director, Cascade Lacrosse. “User experience is how we measure ourselves, to renew the experience for three more years with these elite partners and college's next stars is very exciting.”

Next year represents the 13th annual Under Armour All-America Lacrosse Games, where the best-of-the-best high school lacrosse players will earn the sport's most prestigious honor as an Under Armour All-American.

The Top 44 senior boys and girls are selected by Inside Lacrosse and a committee made up of the nation's most knowledgeable figures in high school lacrosse. Seniors in good academic standing are considered for participation. The players will compete in separate boys' and girls' North vs. South All-Star Games on Saturday, June 30th at Johns Hopkins' Homewood Field.

“The All-America games have served as a launching pad for Cascade's latest and greatest helmets,” said Lee Corrigan, president, CSE. “Between Cascade's helmets and Under Armour's amazing uniforms and gear, young players know to watch All-America weekend for the unveiling of the sport's newest technology and trends.”
